of the Orthodox Church

Towards the Great Council

The Great and Holy Council of the Orthodox Church is planned to be held in all probability some time during 1974 and, in preparation for its discussions, the Interorthodox Preparatory Commission, representing the various Orthodox Churches, was commissioned to draw up a series of statements on six topics proposed, in 1968, by the Fourth Panorthodox Conference. These were originally published in Greek by the Orthodox Ecumenical Centre at Chambesy, Geneva.
